

Dear Salt Lake County Residents,

Cool Zones in Salt Lake County

Summer heat waves have arrived! Escape the heat and stay cool at one of the many Cool Zones Salt Lake County has to offer!

What is a Cool Zone?

Cool Zones are air-conditioned indoor spaces open and free to the public!

Cool Zones are located throughout the valley at Salt Lake County Libraries, Senior Centers, and Salt Lake City Libraries. Find a Cool Zone near you at: slco.to/zones

Who can Access Cool Zones?

Anyone seeking a break from summer temperatures can drop by a Cool Zone to cool off and stay safe from heat-related illnesses.

Visiting a Cool Zone is free, although there may be fees and restrictions to access facility amenities and programs. Please note that Salt Lake County Senior Centers are only open to everyone over the age of 60.

COOL ZONE

Salt Lake County's Cool Zones are designated areas in public facilities where you can temporarily cool off and learn about available services.

This facility's code of conduct, user fees, and eligibility restrictions still apply.

Sincerely,

Jenny Wilson

Mayor of Salt Lake County
